

The image shows a large, multi-tiered retaining wall system made of Valley Stone blocks, installed in a residential setting. The wall features a series of steps leading up to a house with a stone and stucco exterior. The retaining wall is constructed from light-colored, rectangular stone blocks with a textured finish. The top of the wall is finished with a dark, textured cap. The background shows a clear blue sky and a paved driveway in the foreground.

BASALITE®
Retaining Wall Solutions
VALLEY STONE™
Patent Pending

PRODUCT FEATURES

- Matching Caps and Corner Caps
- Wings for ease of installation
- Additional pin holes for setback applications